How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how this class of the fund has performed since inception. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the class' returns.

It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how the class will perform in the future. Also, your actual after-tax return will depend on your personal tax situation.

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in this class on November 31, 2006 now has $1,922. This works out to an annual compound return of 15.1%.

Year-by-year returns

This chart shows how the class has performed in each of the past 4 years. The class dropped in value in 1 of the 4 years.

How risky is it?

When you invest in a fund, the value of your investment can go down as well as up. Galileo Funds Inc. has rated this fund's risk as Medium.

For a description of the specific risks of this fund, see the fund's simplified prospectus.

Are there any guarantees?

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the money you invest.

Who is this fund for?

Investors who want the growth potential of equity securities of Canadian companies, and who want to invest for the longer term and prefer medium risk.

This fund is not suitable for investors looking for steady investment income.

Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Class F units of the fund.

The fund has another class of units. The fees and expenses are different for each class. Ask about our other class that may be suitable for you.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus, or
- cancel your purchase order within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
